GOD’S MERCY

Psalms 103:10-11

“He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. 11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.”

As we know, no one deserves the mercy of God, for Isaiah says “we have turned everyone to his own way” (Isaiah 53:6).

We know from scripture Paul said “all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23).

We know also that the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). Therefore we all deserved death and separation from God.

But in spite of that, “it is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassion fail not” (Lamentations 3:22).

It is by His mercy, not our merit, that we are saved. "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;” (Titus 3:5).

“But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, 5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)” (Ephesians 2:4-5).

Peter said, “according to His abundant mercy” that He has "begotten us again unto a lively hope” (1 Peter 1:3).

How can one possibly reject His mercy? "Despisest Thou the riches of His goodness and forbearance and long-suffering?” (Romans 2:4). Sadly most do.

So why do you reject His mercy? RH
