JUDGE NOT

“Judge not that you be not judged. For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged” (Matthew 7:1),

The Scripture most know and quoted by people who do not know any other Bible.

However it is a serious command of the Lord that all Bible students need to heed. It is, on, condemning a judgmental attitude, quick to judge others for faults far less than their own.

It is clear that if we judge harshly we will be judged harshly.

There are “right judgements” we are to make (John 7:24). When anything is taught contrary to Scripture, we are to judge it as false teaching. When things are done that Scripture shows to be sin, it is “right judgment” to condemn it.

There are two kinds of judgment we are not qualified to make: judging motives and pronouncing final judgment.

Judging motives. God and Jesus can do that. They know people’s motives and can condemn them. “They do all their righteousness to be seen of others” (Matthew 23:5).

He knows it is correct to label them “hypocrites” (Matthew 7:13, et al.). Pronouncing final judgment. There are heart issues involved in that determination also, and, as noted, we cannot read hearts. Some may be surprised to see us there. There will likely be people in heaven we did not expect.

“For judgment is without mercy to those who have shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment” (James 2:13).
