SOME SHORT THINGS ABOUT PRAYER

“And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint” (Luke 18:1).

Frist: prayer is a real thing. It is something of intrinsic value. One man said: “Before I was converted I prayed to nobody. Now I pray to God. Of course we must understand that we pray believing.

Second: prayer is a simple thing. Any child can pray. It is the offering up of our desires unto God. It is asking because we feel our need, and believe that we can receive.

Third: prayer is a desirable thing. “Men ought to pray.” They ought to pray, just as they ought to work and eat. Men ought to deal fairly with God, as they ought to deal fairly with their fellowmen. It is their duty and privilege.

Fourth: prayer is a manly thing. Man is the only animal that can naturally look up. Some men live the brutish life by never looking up. Lift up your face to God and give thanks.

Fifth: prayer is a constant thing. Man ought to keep on praying, just as he keeps on desiring. Man needs to exercise their souls toward God. Continue in prayer if you would grow rich in faith and grace.

Sixth: prayer is a testing thing. “And not to faint.” It is easy to grow weary in this well doing. Ye shall reap if ye faint not. Praying is not fainting it is growing stronger in faith.

Seventh: prayer is a profitable thing. “Ask and ye shall receive.” God would not ask men to pray if He was not willing to give.

As a proof look at the rest of the parable in Luke 18.
