WHO DO YOU FEAR

“The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? 2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. 3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident” (Psalm 27:1-3).

When David wrote this it was in regard to the oppression and the opposition that was against him. His older brothers thought little of him. King Saul, in the book of Samuel, was relentless in pursuit of David, seeking to take his life.

Even the soldiers under his command had conspired against him. His son Absalom tried to usurp his throne.

So because of David’s trust in the Lord he would write this psalm. It was he who trusted God for deliverance. You can see in this psalm the special relationship David had with God, who delivered him in times of trouble, as you read in of Psalms 27.

Notice, David said the Lord is my light. God is a light to us as well and if we walk in the light as 1 John 1:5-7 teaches, we will not stumble, but will maintain a relationship with our Lord.

We know that evil walks in the darkness but, we are not of the dark but of the light. David’s darkness was vanquished.

Notice what Micah said: “Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me” (Micah 7:8).

Another part of the verse said “the Lord is my salvation.”

God has delivered us from the penalty of sin. Notice this: “Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name’s sake” (Psalm 79:9).

So in Christ we have forgiveness of our sins, and his assurance of a happy home in heaven, if we trust Him.
