CHRIST BECAME POOR

"For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich" (2 Corinthians 8:9)

The doctrine of Christ in the self-emptying is an amazing truth in the Bible. He was not only in the form of God, but also equal with God, but condescended to make himself of no reputation, (Philippians 2:6-7). This is really beyond our comprehension.

He, who was with God in the beginning of the universe came to earth in the form of a baby to grow up like every other child, and became the great physician to save sin sick souls for death.

When challenged at times like paying taxes he had a disciple to catch a fish and the money was there to take care of the taxes.

In Gethsemane the disciple did not pray with him because of being weary and they fell asleep.

When he was arrested, they all forsook him and fled. He had no one left to defend him at the mockery of a trial.

When he was sent to die on the cross, he was stripped of his personal possession and they gambled for those possessions.

Not only that, but even the disciples thought it was over and followed Peter to go fishing.

Here, you have Jesus who has no home, no money, no possession, no one to defend and not even a tomb of his own in which to be buried.

Yes, he became poor so that we might be rich in the spiritual sense. He also blesses us with a heavenly home with everlasting life.

By the grace of God you and I are rich in Christ.
