HEALING OF THE DEMONIAK

Luke 8:26-33

This is the biblical story of Jesus healing the man of Gerasene who was demoniac. It shows the redeeming power of our Lord, who was able to help this man, and deliver him from this evil that had over taken him.

It seems that this man was bound by evil, and it seems that there was no hope of any kind of deliverance.

He had been bound with chains by other men, but all this was useless. The evil power that held him was stronger than chains with which he was bound. He would break the chains and was driven by the devil into the wilderness.

He also did not live in a house, but in tombs which was probable a cave. When Jesus asked him what is your name he said Legion, because many devils had entered into him.

With Jesus everything was about to change. The man was changed by the power of Lord, who had power over demons.

They did not want Jesus to cast them into the deep. But there was a head of swine and they ask Jesus to cast them into the herd of swine. Of course, the swine ran down into the lake and choked. Problem solved. Now the man was free to be himself, to realize what it is like to be free and have fullness of life and joy.

Now if Jesus has the power to cast out demons, surely he has the ability to take care of man's sin problem.

He has accomplished that through his death on the cross in the shedding of his blood. So the liberating power of Jesus still sets people free from the power of the world that corrupts and destroys souls.

He enables one to live a life of joy and freedom which He alone can give if one will only obey the gospel.
