OUT OF MOUTH OF BABES

"Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger" (Psalm 8:2).

I read this article based on this Psalm.

Some time ago fifth-grade students were ask to prepare a list of questions to ask Jesus if He were to show up in person the following week.

A group of adults were ask to do the same thing. The results were startlingly different. The kids' questions ranged from adorable to poignant: "Will we have to sit around in robes and sing all day in heaven? Were the whales in or out of the ark" How's my grandpa doing up there with you?" Almost without fail, their questions were free from doubt that heaven existed or that God acts supernaturally.

Adults, on the other hand, featured a completely different line of questions: "Why do bad things happen to good people? How do I know you're listening to my prayers? Why is there only one way to heaven? How could a loving God let this tragedy happen to me?"

For the most part, children live life unfettered by the cares and sorrows that burden adults. Their faith lets them trust God more readily.

While we adults often get lost in trials and sorrows, children retain in psalmist's view of life--an eternal perspective that sees the greatness of God. "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. 2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger" (Psalm 8:1-2).

God can be trusted? He longs for us to trust Him the way children do. "And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 18:3).
