Forgetting

In the book of James, we read these words; "But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed" (James 1:25).

Here, we are reminded to not be a forgetful hearer. Many folks read the Bible, see, and understand what it says but, go away, and forget about the importance of doing. We never need to forget the things that are important.

Of course there are some things that we need to forget. Paul said: "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:13-14).

Paul did not want to forget the most important things, and that was pressing one to follow Christ. Some people forget God. "Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number" (Jeremiah 2:32).

Some remember a lot of things but, seem to forget about God. In early years the young are encourage to remember God.

"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them" (Ecclesiastes 12:1).

Another thing we do not want to forget is the Word of God. In the case of the word we not only need to hear but, we don't want to forget. When we forget we will fail to live a righteous life.

And let us always remember the blessing of God. James said this: "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning" (James 1:17).

If one forgets God, and thinks he does not need the blessing from God. Try to do without God's air and many other things we often take for granted.
