BEING OF SERVICE

John 13:1-5

One has to marvel at the wisdom of Jesus of Nazareth. In His day, washing a guest's feet was customary. What better medicine could there be for tired, dusty feet than to wash them, get them clean and dry!

Knowing that His life on earth was drawing to a close, Jesus used this time-honored custom as an illustration of what life is all about.

John caught the meaning perfectly when he wrote: "Jesus knowing ... that he had come from God and was going to God, rose from supper...and began to wash the disciples' feet." In these words is to be found the perfect outline of one's life.

Do not worry about the origin of life, you came from God.

Do not worry about the destiny of life, you will return to God if faithful.

Connected between birth and death, let there be a life of loving service to mankind.

God help us to realize that we are not our own—we have been "bought with a price"—and we serve you when we serve our fellow man.

Is that not right? Amen!
