BEING FILLED

Colossians 1:9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.

In this prayer Paul sought for the Colossian Christians to be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.

For the Christians at Rome he prayed that they might be "filled with all joy and peace in believing" (Romans 15:13). For the Ephesians, he prayed that they "might be filled with all the fullness of God" (Ephesians 3:19).

He also urged them to "be filled with the Spirit" (5:18).

He wrote to the Philippians, "And this I pray, they your joy may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;... Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God" (Philippians 1:9-11).

Together all these prayer request constitute an ideal description of a complete Christian, and ideal for which we should all strive and pray, both for ourselves and for others.
