WHEN YOU ARE SECOND BEST

Genesis 29:16-30

Leah must have lain awake all night thinking of the moment when her new husband would awaken. She knew that it was not her face he expected to see but Rachel's. Jacob had been a victim of deception. When he realized that a "bait and switch" had occurred, he quickly made a new deal with Laban to claim the woman he had been promised (Genesis 29:25-27).

Have you ever felt insignificant or second-best? Leah felt that way. It's seen in the names she chose for her first three sons (v.31-35). Reuben means "See, a Son"; Simeon: "Heard"; and Levi: "Attached." Their names were a play on words that indicated the lack of love she felt from Jacob. With each son's birth, she desperately hoped she would move up in Jacob's affections and earn his love. Slowly

Leah's attitude changed, and she named her fourth son Judah, which means "Praise" (v35). Though she felt unloved by her husband, perhaps she now realized she was greatly loved by God. We can never "earn" God's love, because it's not dependent on what we do. In truth, the Bible tells us that "while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). In God's eyes, we are worth the best that heaven could offer----the gift of His precious Son.
