BIBLE READING---WHAT IT DOES

2 Timothy 2:15

The Bible will work wonders in our hearts and lives, if we only give time to the reading of it.

The Bible will shed light on our path, reveal the plan of salvation, give visions of a brighter day, and lead us to heaven, if we but give it a diligent study.

A number of good things happen to us when we read the sacred volume. Here are some of them:
It works effectively in us

(1Thessalonians 2:13).

It gives light for one step more (Psalms 119:105).

It teaches, reproves, corrects, uplifts (2 Timothy 3:16).

It cleanses the heart (John 15:3).

It gives us faith, and increases that faith (Romans 10:17).

It greatly strengthens us (1 John 2:14; Acts 20:32).

It gives joy unspeakable (John 15:11).

It brings heavenly life (John 6:63).

By Frank Cox

We have to take into consideration that just reading alone will not bring about the desired results. It must be studied, and then applied to our lives.
