RESPONSE

Chad Heaton came forward last Sunday wanting to confess sin in his life. He wants be restored to a right relationship with God and grow as a Christian should.

Let's all do what we can to encourage him, as he struggles to overcome difficulties in his life.

SYMPATHY

To Donna Finney and Mark Newman at the passing of their aunt, Mildred Casteel. Her funeral was Thursday the 26th.

To Joel Liggins and family at the passing of his grandmother, Nancy Liggins, in Salisbury, N.C.

To Milton Freeze and family at the passing of his daughter, Gwen Savannah Freeze. Her funeral Friday the 27th.

IT IS A BOY!

Congratulations to Alex and Kellie Newman on the birth of an 8 lb. 7 oz. son. Born on Wednesday 25th. No name yet.

W are so happy for all of you!

BEING ALONE

I suppose that all of us at one time or another would like to be alone somewhere, maybe in the woods camping, or in a cabin in the mountains, all by ourselves for maybe a day, a week, or even a month.

Just to get away from all the hurry, worry, the phone, and all that we deal with each day. Have you ever had that thought? Being alone for a short time might be pleasant.

But, soon we need someone to talk too. to share with. We want our families or just to be with other people. Only one will last and that individual is about to give up. You see, man is a creature who eventually succumbs, physically or emotionally, to loneliness.

God in His infinite wisdom recognized our need for companionship and sent His only Son, Jesus Christ, to be with us forever. Think of that ...Jesus, our constant companion!

It is one thing to know about our Savior, but another to know our Savior. Being enclosed in His embrace is like being surrounded by a warm, protective shield, a shield which can be scratched, chipped, or dented by human temptation, but never penetrated.

Through scripture reading, prayer, and faith, we come to the Father whose Son, becomes as the Bible says, "a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." (Proverbs 18:24b)
