BEING ALONE

I suppose that all of us at one time or another would like to be alone somewhere, maybe in the woods camping, or in a cabin in the mountains, all by ourselves for maybe a day, a week, or even a month.

Just to get away from all the hurry, worry, the phone, and all that we deal with each day. Have you ever had that thought? Being alone for a short time might be pleasant.

I have watched a TV program titled "Alone." Several individuals are carried out into the woods usually close to a lake and left there to see which one will survive the longest.

Many start out fine, then finally loneliness begin to work on them. No one to talk too. to share the camp with.

After a while some will even begin to cry for their families or just to be with other people. Only one will last and that individual is about to give up.

You see, man is a creature who eventually succumbs, physically or emotionally, to loneliness.

God in His infinite wisdom recognized our need for companionship and sent His only Son, Jesus Christ, to be with us forever. Think of that ...Jesus, our constant companion!

It is one thing to know about our Savior, but another to know our Savior. Being enclosed in His embrace is like being surrounded by a warm, protective shield, a shield which can be scratched, chipped, or dented by human temptation, but never penetrated.

Through scripture reading, prayer, and faith, we come to the Father whose Son, by invitation, becomes as the Bible says, "a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." (Proverbs 18:24b)
