ONE PIN

How many pins does it take to explode a balloon? You may have many, but one is sufficient. So it is with false doctrines.

Usually there are many arguments that expose it to be false, but one is sufficient. For instance, many claim to be directly guided by the Holy Spirit in what they teach. If so, why do those who claim this teach differently, even contradict each other as well as the Bible? The idea is false.

We are led, guided and taught by the Holy Spirit by the all-sufficient Word. Why not be content with God's word?

THEY HEARD HIM GLADLY

Mark 12:37 "David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly."

Isn't it a shame that in our day most people do not want to hear what Jesus has to say?

The common people of Jesus' day were willing to hear him. There were those then of course that did not want to listen and made sly remarks about what Jesus had to say, but those with a good heart took the time to hear Him.

Now let's ask a question. Why?

I believe one reason that the common people heard him was he always treated them respectfully. Maybe we can learn something from this ourselves when speaking to others and that is treat them respectfully. I don't believe we will ever get anywhere with others if we do not show respect for them.
