WHAT JESUS KNEW ABOUT PETER

Jesus knew far more about Peter than Peter knew about himself. In fact, you will find John saying, "And needed not that any should testify of man: for he know what was in man" (John 2:25).

Doesn't Mark record the fact that Jesus was able to tell what men were thinking" Listen to what he has to say, "Why reason ye these things in your hearts" (Mark 2:8).

This was said of those who stood by and criticized the Lord after he had said to the man that was sick of the palsy, "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee" (Mark 2:4-5).

Since Jesus was divine and a member of the Godhead, He possessed the knowledge of Deity. He would be able to know Peter's down-sitting and his uprising.

He would understand his thoughts afar off. There would not be a word in His tongue that He would not know altogether (Psalms 139:1-6). He would know all that there was to know about Peter.

Jesus knew that Peter needed somebody to pray for him. In fact, Jesus wanted Peter to know that He knew he needed someone to pray for him.

Jesus also knew that Peter would face a formidable foe in the Devil. He knew that Peter would be tried by the Devil to see whether or not he was what he claimed to be.

He said, "Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat" (Luke 22:31). This is the same being our Lord had faced in the wilderness and the same one who tempted Eve in the Garden of Eden.

Jesus knew the havoc, he had caused in the world and the damage that he could still do. He knew that Peter could be overcome by such.

Yes, there is much that Jesus knew about Peter. In fact, the Lord knew much more about Peter than Peter knew about himself.

A part of a lesson by Winfred Clark.

When you think about what Jesus knew about Peter; think, what does Jesus know about me that, I don't even know about myself?
