ADULTS, CHILDREN ARE WATCHING

Children learn by imitating the adults around them. Little children play with dolls, toy cars and toy tools.

How do they know what to do with these toys? They watch adults use the real things.

When adults use alcohol, swear, or participate in behavior that is not Christ-like, children see and try to imitate this behavior as well.

If adults don't show the proper respect for the Lord by attending the services of the church and obeying God's commands, the children may do the same!

We adults live our lives preaching sermons to those younger, Think on that! Someone is watching each of us.
