Sin and Death

Exekiel 18:1-23

There are those who believe that sin is hereditary. In this section of scripture God charges the people with misrepresenting the facts. They were using this proverb... saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge" (v.2).

Hereditary influence can be great, but no one inherits their sins from their parents or from Adam. Notice verse 4 "Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die."

There is no way to escape from this. According to verse four all souls belong to God. He is the one that gives life. He is the Father of spirits. Souls are spirits and should glorify God as the reason for their existence.

But each soul is responsible to God. Again notice "The soul that sinneth, it shall die" (v.4, 20). No man is to die for his father's sin. The sinning son of the just man shall die in his sins (vv. 5-13), and the righteous son of a sinning father shall not die for his sins, but live (vv. 14-17).

Every man must give an account of himself unto God. 2 Corinthians 5:10 "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

No man is condemned because of Adam's sin, but because "All have sinned." (Romans. 3:23).

This passage tells us that righteousness is a condition of life. Notice, "If a man be just...he shall surely live" (vv. 5, 9). A just man is one who is a law-abiding man. A man whose life is in harmony with, and guided by the word of God.

Now through Christ, the righteousness of God is now available to all and

Notice Acts 13:38-39 "Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: 39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."

Apart from appropriating the grace of God "there is none righteous, no not one." One must believe, repent, confess and be baptized for remission of sins.
