Psalm 37:4

“Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.”

For many people who are not in the Lord and do not care, this verse would seem strange to them since they do have godliness and have no idea of a recognized truth.

But to the sincere Christian this verse hold great happiness and joy of heart. The person in the verse described and I apply it to the Christian today it holds great delight.

Ungodly persons and those who profess great knowledge never look upon religion as a joyful thing, to them it would only be a service, duty, or necessity, but never a pleasure or delight.

Even if they attend to religion at all, it is either what can I gain by it or because they fear not doing so.

But Christians who know Christ, understand that faith and delight are united together so that the gates of hell cannot tear them away from their joy and happiness in Christ.

Those who love God with all their hearts, find that His ways are the only way to pleasantness and that it a pathway to peace.

Such joy, such delights, such overflowing blessings that the Christian has discovered in their Lord that they do not serve the Lord from custom but they would follow Him through all the world is against Him and them.

They would never cast shame on the name of the Lord but would honor and glorify His great name. They do not fear God because of compulsion, our faith is no yoke of bondage but freedom.

We are not having to be dragged to live a holy life nor driven to duty out of fear but because we love the Lord and appreciate what He has done for us.

No, our devotion is our pleasure; our hope is our happiness, and our duty our delight in the Lord.

Thank you Lord for all you have done for us. Help us to be more appreciative of the blessing you have bestowed on us, your children.
