UPCOMING EVENTS

November 17th, TABS @ New Union @ 5:00.

SYMPATHY

Our sympathy to Keith Pippenger and family at passing of his grandfather, Edward Raulston. His service was on the 5th, in Bridgeport, Alabama.

A “PIZZA AND GOOD WORK” GET TOGETHER

On November 24th, following worship, anyone who will participate, please stay and have pizza lunch with a card making session afterward.

The cards will be taken to the residents of Kingwood Arms.

There are two sign up sheets in foyer, one for adults and teens who are willing to help and one for the young ones who would like to attend and deliver cards.

Please sign up by November 17th. See Emily Welborn for more information.

ITS THAT TIME AGAIN

There are TWO sign up sheets on the NEWS board for 2020.

Please take this opportunity for service in one of the two areas or both if you wish.

One is for food coordinator, the other is for preparing communion one month a year.

BEING OF SERVICE

John 13:1-5

One has to marvel at the wisdom of Jesus of Nazareth. In His day, washing a guest's feet was customary. What better medicine could there be for tired, dusty feet than to wash them, get them clean and dry!

Knowing that His life on earth was drawing to a close, Jesus used this time-honored custom as an illustration of what life is all about.

John caught the meaning perfectly when he wrote: “Jesus knowing ... that he had come from God and was going to God, rose from supper...and began to wash the disciples' feet.” In these words is to be found the perfect outline of one's life.

Do not worry about the origin of life, you came from God. Do not worry about the destiny of life, you will return to God if faithful.

Connected between birth and death, let there be a life of loving service to mankind. God help us to realize that we are not our own—we have been “bought with a price”—and we serve you when we serve our fellow man.

Is that not right? Amen!
