Very Costly Gift

Romans 3:21-26

A Rolex watch is one of the finest timepieces made. Going to another country people will see what is called a Rolex and buy then at a cheap price, but the problem is, they are "knockoffs."

Imitations of the real thing easily passed on to tourist at ridiculously cheap prices. In some cases the name is not ROLEX but ROLEXX.

Few things of value are inexpensive. Fewer still are free. But, Salvation the most important gift of all is free.

Unlike the imitation Rolex, salvation is of infinite value. Yet it is free because, as one hymn reminds us, "Jesus paid it all."

No one can earn salvation (Ephesians 2:8-9). We need only believe and obey and receive the gift of eternal life that God offers.

It's a paradoxical truth that while salvation is free, its cost was great.

Oswald Chambers wrote, "Forgiveness, which is so easy to accept, cost the agony of Calvary." Anyone who teaches something else is simply pushing a "knockoff" of the real thing.

Oh, how great a gift Jesus gave to me! Lived a perfect life, died upon a tree; Not for me alone has He paid the price, But for all the world by His sacrifice.
